Editor's Note

Welcome to our first issue of Seri Austin Buzz... for year 2015. Three months have already passed since I joined the company and took care of the Seri Austin Buzz... Several improvements have already been made, and I will make many more this year.

I remember the first day when I walked in for the interview, from the look and feel of it, I was excited already. On being offered, and subsequently working here, I realized how great the organization really is. It's more of a family to me, as when you have leaders like CEO KK Wong who you can go for guidance pertaining to any topic-professional or personal.

On the job training and employee engagements programs have been superlative. If we have any reason to celebrate – we do. Movie Days, Birthday Parties in office, Birthday party outside office, even good weather – we celebrate it all.

There is so much of learning, positive energy, sharing and caring from colleagues & bosses around here. Keep it up!

With Warm Wishes,
